

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS

Requirements for Acknowledgement of Arts Endowment Support

Partnership Awards

Revised 6/26/09

Please see the "General Terms and Conditions for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to Organizations" for information on managing all aspects of your NEA grant.

1. Requirements for State and Regional Agencies:

State Arts Agencies (SAAs) and Regional Arts Organizations (RAOs) must clearly acknowledge support from the National Endowment for the Arts in their programs and related promotional materials for the life of the grant period.

The following examples are included as models for print/Web acknowledgement. They may be utilized as is or segments from more than one example may be combined as appropriate for your agency's circumstances:

- This project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts.
- Funding for the _____ Arts Commission and its programs is provided by the State of _____ and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.
- The _____ Arts Commission is funded by the _____ State Legislature, other public and private sources, and the National Endowment for the Arts.

In addition, SAAs and RAOs are encouraged to incorporate the current NEA logo into their agency's publications and Web site along with the acknowledgement of NEA support. You may download the current NEA logo from our Web site at,

<http://www.arts.gov/manageaward/index.html>

For radio or television broadcast, we require the following language: "This project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts." For television broadcast, display of the current Arts Endowment logo is required.

2. Requirements for All Organizations Receiving Awards from State and Regional Agencies:

SAAs and RAOs should do all they can to make sure their grantees recognize the role of the NEA in the programs that were assisted by NEA support. This will help promote a more complete understanding of the federal role in supporting the arts in each state and region.

In order to prevent inappropriate crediting, SAAs and RAOs should clarify for their grantees that

- NEA crediting language should specify the supported program/activity, and that
- they must remove NEA acknowledgements from their Web sites and printed materials at the completion of their respective grant periods.

The following examples are included as models for print/Web acknowledgement. They may be utilized as is or segments from each may be combined as appropriate for your agency's circumstances:

- This project was supported [in part] by the _____ Arts Commission, which receives support from the State of _____ and the National Endowment for the Arts.
- This project was supported [in part] by the _____ Arts Commission, which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

In addition, recipients of SAA and RAO grants may display the current NEA logo <http://www.arts.gov/manageaward/index.html> with the crediting language (as noted above) for the life of the grant period only.

For radio or television broadcast, we require the language noted above in Section 1.
