

“Why children, if you have woman’s rights, give it to her and you will feel better. You will have your own rights, and they won’t be so much trouble.”

SOJOURNER TRUTH

---

DID YOU KNOW

... Sojourner Truth's "Ain't I a Woman" speech enjoyed new popularity in a modified form 12 years after she first delivered it at a woman's rights convention in 1851?

CELEBRATE

100 Years of Women's Suffrage with the National Endowment for the Arts

Book and postcards free to download at arts.gov/suffrage

Front Image: Portrait of Sojourner Truth, undated, photomechanical reproduction, Library of Congress, Miller NAWSA Suffrage Scrapbooks, 1897-1911, Rare Book and Special Collections Division, Washington DC