

Established by Congress in 1965, the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) is the independent federal agency that works to give people across America the opportunity to participate in and experience the arts. The NEA is the only funder, public or private, that provides access to the arts in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. territories.

KENTUCKY

Nationwide, COVID-19 has had a devastating impact on the arts. Thanks to historic investments, the NEA is helping the arts and cultural sector to recover, rebuild, and reopen. In 2020:

- Arts and cultural production in Kentucky added 2.6% or $5.6 billion to the state's economy.
- Kentucky's arts and cultural industries employed 46,652 workers. These workers earned wages and benefits totaling over $2.8 billion.

GRANTS TO THE STATE

Over a five-year period (FY 2017-2021), the NEA distributed $10,874,104 in federal funds to grant applicant organizations in this state, either directly or through state and regional partners.

The Arts Endowment awarded 123 direct grants throughout Kentucky over the past 5 years, totaling $8,438,297. These direct grants included:

- An exhibition and public programming documenting the experiences and traditions of the Bosnian community of Bowling Green
- Professional development in arts integration for early childhood educators in rural Kentucky
- Training in mosaic techniques for students from the Kentucky School for the Deaf

NEA NATIONAL INITIATIVES IN THE STATE

In addition to offering direct grants, the NEA supports national initiatives benefiting people across the country.

Blue Star Museums program provided free admission to thousands of active military personnel and their families at 23 participating museums in Kentucky.

Poetry Out Loud program provided opportunities for an average of 2,704 students per year attending 43 unique high schools in Kentucky to appreciate—through study, memorization, and public recitation— great poetry.

The NEA Big Read program generated 314 community events focused on reading outstanding American literature and involving more than 42,850 adults and students in Kentucky.

