

Established by Congress in 1965, the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) is the independent federal agency that works to give people across America the opportunity to participate in and experience the arts. The NEA is the only funder, public or private, that provides access to the arts in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. territories.

ARKANSAS

Nationwide, COVID-19 has had a devastating impact on the arts. Thanks to historic investments, the NEA is helping the arts and cultural sector to recover, rebuild, and reopen. In 2020:

- Arts and cultural production in Arkansas added 2.2% or $2.8 billion to the state's economy.
- Arkansas's arts and cultural industries employed 30,956 workers. These workers earned wages and benefits totaling over $1.7 billion.

GRANTS TO THE STATE

Over a five-year period (FY 2018-2022), the NEA distributed $9,004,822 in federal funds to grant applicant organizations in this state, either directly or through state and regional partners.

The Arts Endowment awarded 64 direct grants throughout Arkansas over the past 5 years, totaling $6,776,069. These direct grants included:

- "Giving Voice: A Festival of Writing and the Arts", which serves residents of rural communities
- A design workshop and artist-facilitated community planning for the Southside neighborhood of Fayetteville
- Inception to Projection, a hands-on filmmaking class for middle and high school students

NEA NATIONAL INITIATIVES IN THE STATE

In addition to offering direct grants, the NEA supports national initiatives benefiting people across the country. Over the past five years:

Blue Star Museums program provided free admission to thousands of active military personnel and their families at 11 participating museums in Arkansas.

Poetry Out Loud program provided opportunities for an average of 186 students per year attending 68 unique high schools in Arkansas to appreciate—through study, memorization, and public recitation— great poetry.
