

IOWA

Nationwide, COVID-19 has had a devastating impact on the arts. Thanks to historic investments, the NEA is helping the arts and cultural sector to recover, rebuild, and reopen. In 2020:

- Arts and cultural production in Iowa added 2.1% or $4.2 billion to the state's economy.
- Iowa's arts and cultural industries employed 38,110 workers. These workers earned wages and benefits totaling over $2.4 billion.

GRANTS TO THE STATE

Over a five-year period (FY 2018-2022), the NEA distributed $9,922,035 in federal funds to grant applicant organizations in this state, either directly or through state and regional partners.

The Arts Endowment awarded 46 direct grants throughout Iowa over the past 5 years, totaling $6,379,510. These direct grants included:

- Fieldwork to inform a future exhibit at the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library
- An orchestra concert that promotes visibility of Black and Indigenous composers and artists
- A performance and educational programming by the Kaia String Quartet as a part of a series focused on Latino composers

NEA NATIONAL INITIATIVES IN THE STATE

In addition to offering direct grants, the NEA supports national initiatives benefiting people across the country. Over the past five years:

Blue Star Museums program provided free admission to thousands of active military personnel and their families at 76 participating museums in Iowa.

Poetry Out Loud program provided opportunities for an average of 587 students per year attending 58 unique high schools in Iowa to appreciate—through study, memorization, and public recitation— great poetry.

The NEA Big Read program generated 46 community events focused on reading outstanding American literature and involving more than 2,565 adults and students in Iowa.
