SAMPLESee Manage Your Award for FDRs for open awards.FY15 & Later FINAL DESCRIPTIVE REPORT - Standard

December 2014

Submit your Final Descriptive Report (FDR) within 90 days after the award period end date. The FDR must be emailed as a PDF to FinalReports@arts.gov. Before completing this form, please review our FDR formatting instructions, found here: XXXXXXX. FDRs must be completed in Adobe Reader, version 9 or newer, and saved as a PDF to upload to our final reports database. Please follow the instructions carefully; improperly formatted reports cannot be accepted.

The FDR has three parts; the first two are included in this fillable form. Part III of the FDR is an online reporting system for the geographic location of project activities. Refer to your Reporting Requirements document or, if a cooperative agreement, to your award document to determine if you must submit a final product in addition to your FDR and Federal Financial Report.

PART I: PROJECT NARRATIVE

In this section, you will describe the achievements and challenges of your project. You may cut and paste the answer into the form from another document, but you must limit your response to the posted character limits.

You may include "human interest" stories or other anecdotal information about the project within the narrative as appropriate. On occasion you may be contacted for copies of programs, reviews, relevant news clippings, playbills, or other evidence of your accomplishments, including evidence of your acknowledgement of Arts Endowment support. Feel free to include web links.

1. What activities did the award support and what did the project accomplish during the period of performance? (3,000 character limit)
2. Were you able to carry out the approved project activities? If not, please explain. (3,000 character limit)
3. Who were the key artists and partnering organizations, and what was the nature of their involvement? (3,000 character limit)
4. Discuss the extent to which you achieved the NEA primary outcome identified in your application (Creation, Learning, Engagement or Understanding). We recognize that some projects involve risk, and we want to hear about what you've learned from both your successes and your failures. (3,000 character limit)
5. Beyond the project's direct accomplishments, what was the impact on - or benefit to - your organization, your discipline/field, and/or your community? (3,000 character limit)

PART II: PROJECT OUTCOMES

1. "In-Person" Arts Experience
Enter the number of people that directly engaged with the arts, whether through attendance at arts events or participation in arts learning or other types of activities that involved people directly interacting with artists or the arts. Do not count individuals who were primarily reached through television, radio, the Internet, or other media. Avoid inflated numbers, and do not double-count repeat attendees.	a. Adults:
	b. Children/Youth:
	c. Total:

2. Virtual Arts Experience
For web-based projects, enter the number of unique visitors that accessed online programming (e.g., podcasts, web streaming, games, distance learning, online exhibitions, etc.) and mobile applications during the grant period. Do not include people whose primary experience was "in person" or those who visited the website for other content.	a. Internet:
	b. Mobile:
	c. Total:

3. For the next three sections, select all categories that, by your best estimate, made up 25% or more of the population that directly benefited from the project during the period of performance.
